

MOST WORSHIPFUL PRINCE HALL GRAND LODGE
F. & A. M., JURISDICTION OF ALABAMA

AUTHORIZED REGALIA GUIDE
&
DRESS CODE SPECIFICATIONS

by
GRAND MASTER COREY D. HAWKINS, SR., ESQ.

NOVEMBER 20, 2013

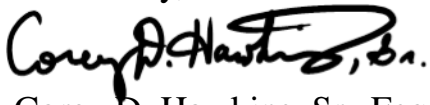

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	II
Brothers' Regalia (Apron).....	1
Subordinate Lodge Officers' Regalia (Apron).....	1
Subordinate Lodge Officers' Regalia (Collar).....	2
Worshipful Masters' Regalia (Apron).....	3
Worshipful Masters' Regalia (Collar).....	4
Worshipful Masters' Regalia (Hat).....	5
Past Masters' Regalia (Apron).....	5
Past Masters' Regalia (Collar).....	6
Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Apron).....	7
Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Collar).....	7
Past Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Apron).....	8
Past Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Collar).....	8
Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Apron).....	9
Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Collar).....	9
Past Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Apron).....	10
Past Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia (Collar).....	10
Wreaths.....	11
Funeral and Lodge of Sorrow Dress.....	11
Items That are Specifically Prohibited in the Jurisdiction of Alabama.....	12
Items Grand Lodge Officers are not to wear.....	13
Other Items Not To Be Worn in the Jurisdiction of Alabama.....	13
Other Dress/Regalia Specifications.....	14

PREFACE

Recognizing a dire need for dress code standardization within the jurisdiction, I have found it imperative to produce a regalia guide and dress code specifications which will be used to educate the Craft on what can and cannot be worn as regalia and Masonic dress in the Jurisdiction of Alabama. Anything other than what is described within this guide as appropriate is not authorized by the Grand Lodge of Alabama and is hereby strictly prohibited. Strict adherence to this policy is required.

Fraternally,

Corey D. Hawkins, Sr., Esq., KYGCH, 33°
Grand Master

Brothers' Regalia

Apron

Brothers are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The all seeing eye is on the bib and the masonic emblem is on the body. The apron may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Subordinate Lodge Officers' Regalia

Apron

Subordinate Lodge Officers are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The all seeing eye is on the bib and the masonic emblem is on the body. The apron may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

or

Subordinate Lodge Officers are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The all seeing eye is on the bib and the emblem of office is on the body. The apron may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Collar

Subordinate Lodge Officers are to wear a gold or silver-plated metal collar on blue velvet backing with the jewel of their office suspended from it. (No wreath)

or

Subordinate Lodge Officers are to wear a blue, velvet collar with gold, white or silver trim with or without the jewel of office embroidered on or suspended from it. The collar may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Worshipful Masters' Regalia

The Worshipful Master wears the square or, if he so chooses, after having passed the chair, he may wear the Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant).

WM

PM

Apron

Worshipful Masters are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The all seeing eye is on the bib and a masonic emblem, square or Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) is on the body. The apron may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Collar

Worshipful Masters are to wear a gold or silver-plated metal collar on blue velvet backing with the square suspended from it. (No wreath)

or

Worshipful Masters are to wear a blue, velvet collar with gold, white or silver trim with or without the square embroidered on or suspended from it. The collar may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Hat

Worshipful Masters are to wear a black top hat, derby, stetson, fedora, homburg or a very similar covering.

Past Masters' Regalia

Apron

Past Masters are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The all seeing eye is on the bib and a masonic emblem or Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) is on the body. The aprons may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Collar

Past Masters are to wear a gold or silver-plated metal collar on blue, velvet backing with the Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) suspended from it. (No wreath)

or

Past Masters are to wear a blue, velvet collar with gold, white or silver trim with or without the Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) embroidered on or suspended from it. The collar may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia

Apron

Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a velvet and satin, velvet and lambskin or all satin apron. The apron must have a purple bib and border with gold trim, fringe, and an all seeing eye on the bib. The Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) or emblem of office within a wreath must be on the body of the apron.

Collar

Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a gold-plated metal collar on purple, velvet backing with jewel of Grand Lodge Office, within a wreath, suspended from it. Grand District Deputies and Grand Lodge Officers, whose offices do not have jewels, will wear the Past Master's jewel (with square and quadrant) within a wreath.

Past Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia

Apron

Past Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a velvet and satin, velvet and lambskin or all satin apron. The apron must have a purple bib and border with gold trim, fringe, and an all seeing eye on the bib. The Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) within a wreath must be on the body of the apron.

Collar

Past Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a gold-plated metal collar on purple velvet backing with the Past Master's jewel (with square and quadrant), within a wreath, suspended from it.

Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia

Apron

Assistant Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The apron must have an all seeing eye on the bib and a Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) on the body. The apron may be worn with or without fringe. (No wreath)

Collar

Assistant Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a gold or silver-plated metal collar on blue, velvet backing (with a title bar on the collar that reads “Assistant” “Title of office” and the Past Master emblem with square and quadrant), suspended from it. (No wreath)

Past Assistant Grand Lodge Officers' Regalia

Apron

Past Assistant Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without blue trim. The apron must have an all seeing eye on the bib and a Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) on the body. (No wreath)

Collar

Past Assistant Grand Lodge Officers are to wear a gold or silver-plated metal collar on blue, velvet backing with the Past Master's emblem (with square and quadrant) suspended from it. (No wreath)

Wreaths

Wreaths on Masonic regalia are only to be worn by Grand Lodge Officers and Past Grand Lodge Officers. Brothers not of this rank should not have wreaths on their aprons, jewels, gloves, lapel pins, etc.

Funeral and Lodge of Sorrow Dress

All Brothers are to wear an all-white cloth, satin or lambskin apron with or without white embroidery appropriate to the Brother's office. A sprig of acacia or evergreen may be worn on the left breast. Also, a badge of mourning may be worn. No collars or lapel pins are to be worn.

Items That Are Specifically Prohibited in the Jurisdiction of Alabama

The following items are specifically NOT to be worn in the Jurisdiction of Alabama. This list is not all inclusive.

Aprons identical to Grand Lodge Officer aprons, except they are blue in color, are not to be worn.

Crowns, skull caps, and cuffs are not to be worn by Worshipful Masters.

Grand Lodge Officers are not to wear the following in this Jurisdiction:

Other Items Not To Be Worn

Purple and gold aprons and collars are not to be worn by Worshipful Masters and Past Masters.

Black gloves are not to be worn.

Earrings are not to be worn, at any time, in the lodge or while representing the lodge.

Shorts are not to be worn in the lodge.

The letter “G”, square and compass or lodge number are not to be on the bib of the apron. Only the all seeing eye is to be on the bib.

Aprons with skulls and crossbones, hour glasses, scales, coffins, winding staircases, mosaic pavements, indented tessels, temples, etc. are not to be worn.

Other Dress/Regalia Specifications

The dress of a Master Mason is a black or dark blue suit, white shirt, solid black tie (string or bow), solid black shoes black socks, approved apron and white gloves.

If a Brother elects to wear gloves with emblems on them, they must be appropriate to the blue lodge.

An all-white cloth, satin or lambskin apron is appropriate at all times for Masonic dress.

If a Brother elects, he may wear an apron with the appropriate emblem, side tabs, working tools, pillars, and/or vine work around the border.

Collars can be adorned with braid or rhinestone trim if desired.

Aprons should be 13"x 15 " or 14"x 16".